

HOWMET ONLINE PRIVACY NOTICE

Howmet Aerospace Inc. and its affiliates (collectively referred to as “Howmet, “we” and “us”) takes its data protection and privacy responsibilities seriously. This Online Privacy Notice applies to Howmet.com and other external Howmet websites that link to this Notice (the “Sites”). This Notice describes the types of personal information we collect on the Sites, how we use the information, with whom we share it and the choices available to users of our Sites regarding our use of the personal information. We also describe the measures we take to protect the security of the personal information and how users can contact us about our privacy practices. Certain of the Sites may provide additional detail about privacy practices specific to those Sites. Internal company policies and procedures govern Howmet's internal networks and systems and the processing of personal information relating to employees and other authorized Howmet network users.

In order to facilitate and guarantee the protection of your rights and those of other holders of personal data, it is necessary to understand and define some concepts, namely, the following:

Definitions:

- a. Applicable Laws means at least the following: (i) Australian Privacy Law of 1998 as amended in 2021; (ii) the Brazil Data Protection Laws meaning the Lei Geral de Proteção de Dados Pessoais, Law No. 13,709/2018, as amended (the “LGPD”) (http://www.planalto.gov.br/ccivil_03/_ato2015-2018/2018/lei/L13709.htm); (iii) the California Data Protection Laws meaning the California Consumer Privacy Act, California Civil Code § 1798.100 et seq. (the “CCPA”) as amended, replaced or superseded from time to time (please see the Howmet California Privacy Notice - Non-Affiliated Individuals by clicking the following link: <https://www.howmet.com/global/en/pdf/Howmet-California-Privacy-Notice.pdf>); (iv) the personal information protection law of the People’s Republic of China (“PIPL”) adopted on November 1, 2021; (v) the EU Data Protection Laws meaning the General Data Protection Regulation 2016/679/EU (“GDPR”) and laws and regulations supplementing the GDPR; (vi) the Quebec Data Protection Laws meaning the Act respecting the protection of personal information in the private sector, CQLR c P-39.1; (vii) the Swiss Data Protection Laws meaning the Federal Act on Data Protection, Swiss Civil Code 235.1 (the “FADP”); (viii) the UK Data Protection Laws” means the UK GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018.
- b. Consent: free, informed and unequivocal expression by which the holder agrees to the processing of the latter’s personal data for a specific purpose;
- c. Controller: natural or legal person, governed by public or private law, responsible for decisions regarding the processing of personal data;
- d. Data Subject: natural person to whom the personal data being processed refers;
- e. Personal data: information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person;
- f. Personal database: structured set of personal data, established in one or several locations, in electronic or paper support;
- g. Personal data processing: any operation carried out with personal data, such as those relating to the collection, production, reception, classification, use, access, reproduction, transmission, distribution, processing, archiving, storage, elimination, assessment or control of information, modification, communication, transfer, dissemination or extraction;
- h. Processor: natural or legal person, governed by public or private law, who processes personal data on behalf of the controller.
- i. Sensitive personal data: personal data on racial or ethnic origin, religious conviction, political opinion, membership of a trade union or organization of a religious, philosophical or political nature, data relating to the health or sex life, genetic or biometric data, when linked to a natural person.

When we collect information

We collect personal information about you if you visit one of our facilities, request access to our network and/or computing assets, apply for a job with us, or have a type of business relationship with us. We will collect your personal information via the following methods:

- By recording details you provide to us (communications with us through emails, calls, or via our websites);

- operate, evaluate and improve our business (including developing new products and services; enhancing and improving our products and services; managing our communications; analyzing our products, services and communications; and performing accounting, auditing and other internal functions);
- protect against, identify and prevent cybersecurity and other security events, espionage, fraud and other unlawful activity, claims and other liabilities; and
- comply with and enforce applicable legal requirements, relevant industry standards and our policies.

We also may use the information in other ways for which we provide specific notice at the time of collection.

Information We Share

We do not sell or otherwise disclose personal information we collect about you, except as described in this Online Privacy Notice. We share your information in the manner and for the purposes described below:

- i. within Howmet, where such disclosure is necessary to provide you with our services or to manage our business;
- ii. with third parties who help manage our business and deliver services. These third parties have agreed to confidentiality restrictions and use any personal data we share with them or which they collect on our behalf solely for the purpose of providing the contracted service to us. These include IT service providers who help manage our IT and back office systems;
- iii. with our regulators, to comply with all applicable laws, regulations and rules, and requests of law enforcement, regulatory and other governmental agencies;
- iv. we may share in aggregate, statistical form, non-personal data regarding the visitors to our website, traffic patterns, and website usage with our partners, affiliates or advertisers; and/or

- v. if, in the future, we sell or transfer some or all of our business or assets to a third party, we may disclose information to a potential or actual third-party purchaser of our business or assets.

In addition, we may disclose information about you (i) if we are required to do so by law or legal process, (ii) to law enforcement authorities or other government entities, and (iii) when we believe disclosure is necessary or appropriate to prevent harm or financial loss, or in connection with an investigation of suspected or actual espionage, cybersecurity or security events or other fraudulent or illegal activity. We also reserve the right to transfer personal information we have about you in the event we sell or transfer all or a portion of our business or assets (including in the event of a reorganization, spin-off, dissolution or liquidation).

Transferring Personal Information Globally

Howmet operates on a global basis. Accordingly, your personal data may be transferred and stored in countries outside the EU, EEA, UK and Switzerland (including Canada, the United States, Mexico, China, Brazil, South Korea, Japan, Australia and Russia) that are subject to different standards of data protection. Howmet will take appropriate steps to ensure that transfers of personal information are in accordance with applicable law and carefully managed to protect your privacy rights and interests and transfers are limited to countries which are recognized as providing an adequate level of legal protection or where we can be satisfied that alternative arrangements are in place to protect your privacy rights. To this end:

- we ensure transfers within Howmet will be covered by an agreement entered into by members of Howmet (an intra-group agreement) which contractually obliges each member to ensure that personal data receives an adequate and consistent level of protection wherever it is transferred within Howmet;
- where we transfer your personal data outside Howmet or to third parties who help provide our products and services, we obtain contractual commitments from them to protect your personal data; or
- where we receive requests for information from law enforcement or regulators, we carefully validate these requests before any personal data are disclosed.

If you are located in the European Union, European Economic Area ("EEA"), United Kingdom or Switzerland, we will comply with applicable legal requirements providing adequate protection for the transfer of personal information to recipients in countries outside of these areas. With respect to transfers of personal information to the U.S., Howmet is certified under the EU-U.S. Privacy Shield framework developed by the U.S. Department of Commerce and the European Commission regarding the transfer of personal information from the EU, EEA, and UK to the U.S., and will continue to treat all such personal information in accordance with the Privacy Shield principles. To learn more about the Privacy Shield program, and to view our certification, please visit www.privacyshield.gov. For our Privacy Shield notice to third party natural persons located in the EU, EEA, or UK, please visit the Howmet U.S.-EU Privacy Shield Privacy Notice – Non-Affiliated Individuals by clicking the following link: <https://www.howmet.com/global/en/pdf/Howmet-Aerospace-Privacy-Shield-Privacy-Notice-NAI.pdf>. Note that data protection laws in the EEA, United Kingdom, Switzerland, and elsewhere may require those transferring personal data to Howmet in the US to enter into a separate agreement with Howmet before initiating such transfers. Please contact us if you wish to request such an agreement.

You have a right to contact us at privacy@howmet.com for more information about the safeguards we have put in place to ensure the adequate protection of your personal data when this is transferred as mentioned above.

Consent

By continuing to use this website, you will freely and unequivocally: (i) consent to the terms of this Privacy Notice; and (ii) the Processing of your Personal Data pursuant to the terms of this Notice.

Your Rights and Choices

Subject to certain exemptions, and in some cases dependent upon the processing activity we are undertaking, you have certain rights in relation to your personal data. We may ask you for additional information to confirm your identity and for security purposes, before disclosing the personal data requested to you. We reserve the right to charge a fee where permitted by law, for instance if your request is manifestly unfounded or excessive.

You can exercise your rights by completing our request form at <https://www.howmet.com/privacy/dsr/>. Subject to legal and other permissible considerations, we will make every reasonable effort to honor your request promptly or inform you if we require further information in order to fulfil your request.

We may not always be able to fully address your request, for example if it would impact the duty of confidentiality we owe to others, or if we are legally entitled to deal with the request in a different way.

Right to access personal data

You have a right to request that we provide you with a copy of your personal data that we hold and you have the right to be informed of: (a) the source of your personal data; (b) the purposes, legal basis and methods of processing; (c) the data controller's identity; and (d) the entities or categories of entities to whom your personal data may be transferred.

Right to rectify or erase personal data

You have a right to request that we rectify inaccurate personal data. We may seek to verify the accuracy of the personal data before rectifying it. You can also request that we erase your personal data in limited circumstances where:

- it is no longer needed for the purposes for which it was collected; or
- you have withdrawn your consent (where the data processing was based on consent), and where there is no other legal ground for the processing; or
- following a successful right to object (see right to object); or
- it has been processed unlawfully; or
- to comply with a legal obligation to which Howmet is subject.

We are not required to comply with your request to erase personal data if the processing of your personal data is necessary:

- for compliance with a legal obligation; or
- for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims; or
- for performance of a contract.

Right to restrict the processing of your personal data

You can ask us to restrict your personal data, but only where:

- its accuracy is contested, to allow us to verify its accuracy; or
- the processing is unlawful, but you do not want it erased; or
- it is no longer needed for the purposes for which it was collected, but we still need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or
- you have exercised the right to object, and verification of overriding grounds is pending.

We can continue to use your personal data following a request for restriction, where:

- we have your consent; or
- to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or
- to protect the rights of another natural or legal person.

Right to transfer your personal data

You can ask us to provide your personal data to you in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format, or you can ask to have it transferred directly to another data controller, but in each case only where:

- the processing is based on your consent or on the performance of a contract with you; and
- the processing is carried out by automated means.

Right to object to the processing of your personal data

You can object to any processing of your personal data which has our legitimate interests as its legal basis, if you believe your fundamental rights and freedoms outweigh our legitimate interests. If you raise an objection, we have an opportunity to demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate interests which override your rights and freedoms.

Right to object to how we use your personal data for direct marketing purposes

You can request that we change the manner in which we contact you for marketing purposes. You can request that we do not transfer your personal data to unaffiliated third parties for the purposes of direct marketing or any other purposes.

Right to obtain a copy of personal data safeguards used for transfers outside your jurisdiction

You can ask to obtain a copy of, or reference to, the safeguards under which your personal data is transferred outside of the European Union. We may redact data transfer agreements to protect commercial terms.

Right to lodge a complaint with your local supervisory authority

You have a right to lodge a complaint with your local supervisory authority if you have concerns about how we are processing your personal data. We ask that you please attempt to resolve any issues with us first, although you have a right to contact your supervisory authority at any time.

How We Protect Personal Information

Security

We have implemented and maintain appropriate technical and organizational security measures, policies and procedures designed to reduce the risk of accidental destruction or loss, or the unauthorized disclosure or access to such information appropriate to the nature of the information concerned. As the security of information depends in part on the security of the computer you use to communicate with us and the security you use to protect User IDs and passwords please take appropriate measures to protect this information.

Storing your personal data

We will store your personal data for as long as is reasonably necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, as explained in this notice. In some circumstances we may store your personal data for longer periods of time, for instance where we are required to do so in accordance with legal, regulatory, tax, accounting requirements.

In specific circumstances we may store your personal data for longer periods of time so that we have an accurate record of your dealings with us in the event of any complaints or challenges, or if we reasonably believe there is a prospect of litigation relating to your personal data or dealings.

Links to Other Websites

Our Sites may provide links to other websites for your convenience and information. These websites may operate independently from us. Linked sites may have their own privacy notices or policies, which we strongly suggest you review. To the extent any linked websites are not owned or controlled by us, we are not responsible for the websites' content, any use of the websites, or the privacy practices of the websites, even though you may enter that site directly from visiting ours.

Updates to Our Online Privacy Notice

This Online Privacy Notice may be updated periodically and without prior notice to you to reflect changes in our personal information practices. We will post the updated version on our Sites and indicate at the top of the notice when it was most recently updated.
